Gracious, high spirited comfort in the heart of the Rocky Mountains.

The Wild Horse Inn invites you to celebrate your wedding where personalized service, attention to detail and the warmth of a mountain lodge combine to create a unique and romantic backdrop for your special day.

Just an hour and a half from Denver, the Wild Horse Inn near Winter Park sits nestled among acres of trees and meadows on a ridge above Fraser Valley – surrounded by the Continental Divide, Rocky Mountain National Park and an infinity of mountains on all sides. Handcrafted from 400-year-old logs, moss covered rock and giant picture windows, the Wild Horse Inn is reminiscent of the grand mountain lodges built at the turn of the twentieth century when Colorado was rougher around the edges and refinement had a distinctively rustic flair.

The grounds of the Wild Horse Inn are overflowing with mountain wildflowers and peaceful garden pools, offering you the perfect backdrop for your wedding photographs. You can choose to celebrate in the Great Room with its grand stone fireplace, vaulted ceilings and forest views, or have an outdoor wedding in the gardens. Either way, the Wild Horse Inn will be an intimate, unforgettable setting for you and your guests.
